The New York Mission Team (30 students and 12 leaders) will be leaving early Tues., Mar. 27th for their time in NYC. We want to say THANK YOU for all the ways you have supported the team over the past few months. It has touched our hearts and been such a blessing to have you supporting and encouraging us. We now ask for your prayers over the next week as the team ministers and shares the love of Jesus with all those they meet. Thank You and God Bless You!

You are invited to come and experience THE BEMA at the 36th Annual Legacy Dinner at CMCS on Fri., Apr. 6th. Dinner will begin at 6:30 pm with dessert following the life-impacting presentation. The Bema live is a fictional account of a Biblical truth in a one-man dramatic presentation about a man and his experience before the Judgement Seat of Christ. It is a story of loss and reward, love and regret, and finally-glorification! This event is complimentary, but RSVP's are required. Please RSVP by Mon., Mar. 26th, on our website www.cmcschool.org or by calling 320-978-8700.

Sex Trafficking in the Midwest Seminar: Sex trafficking is happening all across the state of MN – including right here in our own backyard. Join Source Anti-Trafficking of Minneapolis for an informative morning of education and awareness about what trafficking looks like, while equipping the church to find ways to respond. This seminar will be held on Sat., Apr. 7th from 9 am-Noon at Bethany Reformed Church in Clara City.
