We joyfully invite you to praise God with us. We had an encouraging 3-month post-op appointment and all the restrictions on Pastor Aaron regarding his back have been lifted. Thank you for your prayers, support, and assistance in these last months. God has been good to us.

Dear fellow servants of Christ, It was a great blessing to be in West Central Minnesota. We are grateful for your partnership in the Gospel as we together seek to reach students for Christ. We are also grateful for the warm welcome, meals, housing and friendship that you showed us. We are now in Michigan at a family reunion. If you would like to receive our emailed prayer letters and/or Facebook posts, please email us at svanzanen@crcna.org or (on Facebook) ask to join Van Zanens in Lithuania or contact your church secretary. Thank you again.

The Gallery, an opportunity for folks with a Raymond connection to share their talents, will be a feature of the Raymond Harvest Festival on August 25. The Gallery has shown us talents we may not have been aware of. Photography, welding, leatherwork, handwork, woodworking are just a few examples of what was displayed. Please consider how you or a member of your family might participate. Individuals can set up displays, be present, demonstrate, etc. It is not necessary to be present. If interested in participating or if you have questions, please contact Susan Honken at 967-4590.

Sunshine Corner Items are due Wed., July 25th
